

BE sem 6
MAD Assignment 2

1. Explain the purpose of Location Services in Android. How does the system determine a device's location?
2. What is the role of Google Maps in Android applications? Mention some use cases where it is commonly integrated.
3. Define Geocoding and Reverse Geocoding. How are they useful in location-based applications?
4. What are Drawables in Android? Explain the difference between a Drawable object and a ShapeDrawable.
5. What is hardware acceleration in Android graphics? Discuss when it is useful and when it may cause issues.
6. Differentiate between Property Animation and View Animation in Android. Include a use case for each.
7. What is the MediaPlayer class used for in Android? Describe two common tasks it can perform.
8. Explain the difference between recording audio using MediaRecorder and using a SoundPool.
9. What steps are involved in signing an Android application? Why is signing mandatory?
10. Describe the process of publishing an Android application to the Google Play Store. Include the importance of versioning